Choosing the right spoiler is an important decision. It is important that the product that you select is not only stylish, but also durable, and resistant to damage. These are the characteristics of the Maxton Design components. The company has been on the market for years and has been concentrated on the manufacturing of high-end diffusers, spoilers, side skirts, splitters, and bumpers. The item which is especially worth your attention is this spoiler dedicated to Audi R8 Mk2 Facelift.

What about the Audi R8 Mk2 Facelift spoiler stands apart?
- it sports a modernized design
- it’s made of high-quality materials
- it’s covered with a UV-repelling coating
- it’s been granted the TUV MATERIALGUTACHTEN certificate<
- made of fiberglass
- not lacquered
- tie bars made of aluminium lacquered in black gloss

- side wings made of plexi with black gloss finish

This spoiler for Audi R8 Mk2 Facelift is produced out of fiberglass. The grade of this material is assured by the TUV certification that it has got. It stands out with excellent sturdiness, resilience to atmospheric conditions, as well as, elasticity. These properties make fiberglass very well-suited to be applied in the creation of splashy optical tuning parts, and other standard vehicle outfitting, alike.

The Audi R8 Mk2 Facelift spoiler has a real effect on the traction of your car as it causes the air flowing around the bodywork to exert more pressure on the rear axle. This upgrade can mainly be experienced during high-speed driving. Its unique form will also become a slick decoration for this model. The Maxton Design offer is aimed at all the tuning fans that value premium production quality, and innovative design. If you are such an individual, we are certain that the assortment of this Polish producer will meet your standards.
